

While visiting or using the Library, all are expected to adhere to the following Code of Conduct:

- Be considerate when utilizing Library spaces, services, materials, and equipment;
- Engage with Library personnel and other patrons politely;
- Maintain a respectful volume when speaking or using devices like cell phones, tablets, and computers;
- Refrain from any unlawful activity or act that is disruptive or interferes with any person's rights;
- Refrain from soliciting Library users and personnel while on Library premises;
- Refrain from consuming controlled substances on Library property and refrain from entering Library premises in any perceived or actual state of intoxication;
- Wear attire appropriate for a community space like the Library;
- Refrain from bringing any pets or animals inside the Library, except in the case of properly identified service animals;
- Speak up and report any known or suspected instance of non-adherence to this Code of Conduct, any other Library policy or procedure, or any local, state, or federal law.

- Library Management Team
Approved 2019

