9D | Website User Privacy   Revised: 2/13/19

To ensure the privacy and security of all who utilize the Library's website, under no circumstances is any personal data collected, stored on Library servers, or shared with third parties. Though the website may log basic information like IP address, Internet Service Provider (ISP), timestamp, and page visits for analytical and statistical use, no other identifying information is collected.

To further protect library users' information, the Library employs secure third party sites to conduct sensitive transactions (e.g. web payments for fees and fines) and other functions requiring login with a password.
