

6D | Accounts in Good Standing*Adopted: 1/12/22Purpose

To make clear the Library's definition of "good standing" as it relates to library card accounts. Library cards in good standing accord the cardholder full access to the Library's physical and digital collections.

Definition

Library card accounts are considered in good standing if the following conditions are met:

- Fees and/or fines do not exceed $50.00; and
- Materials borrowed are not long-overdue (more than 60 days past original due date);
- The account itself is valid and not expired; and
- No other blocks or restrictions have been placed on the account by library staff.
